Who is MEC?

MicroEnergy Credits catalyzes the shift to a low carbon future by empowering rural and urban households in emerging economies to switch from traditional fuels to clean, efficient and renewable energy. We are passionate about partnering with MicroFinance Institutions to enable women, microentrepreneurs, households and small businesses to access affordable microfinance for clean energy. We offer Microfinance Institutions access to financial enhancements from Environmental Markets which are used to facilitate large scale retail clean energy lending programs. We pride ourselves in creating high quality social impact carbon credits to serve the Voluntary, Compliance and UN Article 6 Carbon Markets.

MicroEnergy Credits is a small, dynamic team. Our culture has maintained its start-up ethos of innovation and collaboration at the intersection of environmental markets, clean energy technology, data analytics and financial inclusion. Our headquarters is located Mumbai, India.. We have developed financial institution partnerships which reach over 80 Million households across Asia and Africa, and our programs have reached 27 Million people with clean energy.

The values that help us deliver

Impact: Serving humanity and the planet

Our goal is not less than stopping climate change and poverty. We do this by impacting markets, supply chains, information flows and unlocking human capital.

Innovation: Great communication leads to great ideas

We all have access to the people, information, and resources we need to get the job done. We value a flat organization, with no silos and lots of collaboration.

Excellence: Everyone at MEC is a leader, making the people and teams around them extraordinary.

MEC team members are excellent communicators, agile problem solvers, trusted colleagues and inspiring leaders.

Change: Building our culture together

While maintaining safety we take risks, make decisions quickly, share mistakes broadly, and learn from them openly. We create our culture together at team retreats where everyone's voice matters.
